

Planning Commission

The Planning Commission establishes regulations restricting the use of land and the locations of buildings and structures within the City and applicable zoning jurisdiction. This may include restricting height and bulk of buildings and structures, the area of yards, courts and other places surrounding them and restricting the density of the City's population. Two members shall reside outside of but within the three miles of the corporate limits of the City. The Planning Commission meets on the fourth Tuesday of each month.

Per Ordinance No. 4079, adopted March 1, 2011, Any member appointed to serve a four-year term after January 1, 2013, shall not serve more than two consecutive four-year terms.

Per Ordinance No. 4160, adopted July 1, 2014, Any member of the board may be removed by the city manager, at his discretion, for misfeasance, nonfeasance, or malfeasance, but only after he conducts an inquiry into any complaint about a member. Furthermore, if any member fails to attend 75% of the regularly scheduled meetings held during the calendar year or fails to attend three (3) consecutive regularly scheduled or special meetings where an official vote is required, then the position shall be considered vacated, and the member shall not be eligible to reapply for a board or commission position for a period of one (1) year. The board chairman shall submit an attendance report to the city clerk within ten (10) business days after each meeting.
